

St Giles' & St George's are proud to present

THE EIGHT WORDS

A jazz suite
by Tim Boniface

based on the last words of Jesus in St John's Passion

plus a second half of classic jazz favourites!

Saturday 13 April, 7.30pm

St George's Church, Barnett Wood Lane, Ashtead

Tickets: £7.50

(Bring your own drinks)

Tickets available for purchase/collection from reception at St George's Christian Centre, Barnett Wood Lane or email leah.perona-wright@ashteadparish.org to book

 Giles George
Knowing Christ, making Him known

“Beautifully played and conceived. The Eight Words is the work of a fine composer musician who also happens to be ordained. The work is ambitious, thoughtful and accessible, yes. And it displays a vintage jazz sensibility, yes. But it is also deeply devotional, too, which makes the music all the more disarming and powerful.” Paul Northup, [Creative Director, Greenbelt]